

Fringe Benefits

Louisiana State University provides to various employees certain fringe benefits funded directly with University funds and indirectly through funding from affiliated support organizations, including—but not limited to—the LSU Foundation, the Alumni Association and the Tiger Athletic Foundation. Examples of fringe benefits include awards, employer provided vehicles and moving expenses. Fringe Benefits may be taxable or nontaxable to the employee according to IRS regulations for each type of benefit. For further explanation, please see FASOP AS-12 .
